How to use this manual

- Step 1 — Concept: Choose name, species, and career (see tables below).
- Step 2 — Hindrances: Up to 4 hindrance points total (Minor = 1, Major = 2). Points pay for higher attributes, extra skills, and edges.
- Step 3 — Attributes: Agility, Smarts, Spirit, Strength, Vigor (dice d4–d12).
- Step 4 — Skills: Train skills; core skills start at d4.
- Step 5 — Edges: Special advantages; Humans get one free edge.
- Step 6 — Equipment: Spend starting credits on weapons, one armor, and gear.

Step 1 — Careers

Bounty Hunter

Licensed or freelance retrieval specialist. You get paid when the target is in cuffs—or a slab.

Benefit title	Type	Effect
Dead or alive paperwork	narrative	You can always identify local bounty-posting customs and typical bond rules without a roll (who pays, who enforces, what voids a claim).
Pressure at range	situational	+1 to Intimidation against a single target who knows you are armed and serious (once per scene per target).
Hunter's mark	situational	In the first round of combat, once per combat, shoot at a target that has not acted this round; each raise adds 1d6 to damage.
Guild hall tone	situational	+1 to Persuasion or Streetwise (pick each roll) when dealing with organizations that routinely work with hunters: bounty guilds, posting authorities, law-enforcement liaisons, or prison and transport contractors.

Colonist

Frontier settler, ag worker, or town pillar. You know how to make a life where supply lines are thin.

Benefit title	Type	Effect
Community face	situational	+1 to Persuasion when dealing with locals in a settlement of $\leq 5,000$ people.

Benefit title	Type	Effect
Practical medicine	situational	+1 to Healing when treating shock, heatstroke, dehydration, or vermin bites—not lightsaber wounds or major surgery.
Barter sense	narrative	You always know who runs the local market, who sets landing pad fees, and who will trade favors for food or parts (no roll to learn that gossip).
Co-op voice	situational	+1 to Persuasion or Streetwise (pick each roll) when dealing with organizations rooted in settlement life: homestead councils, agricultural co-ops, colonial administration, or frontier relief and supply leagues.

Hired Gun

Mercenary, enforcer, or line soldier for credits. Violence is the job description.

Benefit title	Type	Effect
Snap retaliation	situational	+1 to one of your Shooting rolls targeting an enemy that missed you last round.
Mercenary rep	narrative	You recognize unit insignia, typical contract rates, and which officers actually pay on time—no roll for general knowledge of merc bands in the Outer Rim.
Heavy familiarity	situational	Ignore 1 point of multi-action penalty when your extra action is only bracing, deploying, or swapping to a heavy weapon.
Merc's code	situational	+1 to Persuasion or Streetwise (pick each roll) when dealing with organizations that trade in force: mercenary companies, PMC contracting desks, arms suppliers, or veteran and muster societies.

Politico

Diplomat, public advocate, or deal-broker who wins conflicts before blasters clear leather.

Benefit title	Type	Effect
Floor presence	situational	+1 to Persuasion when addressing a group, hearing, council, or negotiation table where your target can hear your full argument.

Benefit title	Type	Effect
Biting retort	situational	Once per combat, as a free action, make a Taunt test against one target who can hear and understand you; on a success, the target is Distracted until the end of its next turn, and on a raise it is also Vulnerable.
Protocol web	narrative	After you spend a few hours talking to locals, you learn the local etiquette chain for formal talks (who must be approached first, titles to use, and what custom might offend) without a roll.
Market brief	situational	+1 to Persuasion or Streetwise (pick each roll) when dealing with organizations built on policy and commerce: trade delegations, customs boards, colonial councils, or corporate affairs offices.

Smuggler

Blockade sprinter, fixer, or fast-talking loader. Cargo flies if the story holds.

Benefit title	Type	Effect
Gray manifest	situational	+1 to Thievery or Streetwise when hiding contraband in a vehicle, crate, or false panel you prepared at least one scene in advance.
Yeah, I bet you have...	situational	Once per scene, if you are in a conversation with the target, you may attempt to draw your blaster and attack. Roll Thievery; on a success, you have the Drop on that target for the attack.
Fixer's introduction	narrative	In any starport Class III or larger, you may know a fence, loader's union rep, or corrupt clerk by reputation; the GM names them when you arrive.
Gray channel	situational	+1 to Persuasion or Streetwise (pick each roll) when dealing with organizations that routinely touch the shadow trade: fences, blockade-runner rings, dockside syndicates, or black-market clearing houses.

Technician

Ship's engineer, slicer, or grease-stained genius. If it has wires, you've sworn at it professionally.

Benefit title	Type	Effect
Battlefield patch	situational	+1 to Repair when fixing something damaged in the last hour during combat or an active chase.
Bad Motivator	situational	Spend a Benny and roll Repair at -2; on a success, a technical item within 4 meters of you spontaneously ceases to work until it is fixed. Droid Extras are Shaken instead.
Found a spare	gear_access	Once per scene, make a Repair roll (0 to 4 penalty, GM discretion) on a technical item; on a success, you have a spare of that item. If you fail, you damage the item until it is repaired.
Yard cred	situational	+1 to Persuasion or Streetwise (pick each roll) when dealing with organizations that keep ships and machines running: shipyards, mechanics' unions, factory service desks, or certified repair and parts networks.

Step 6 — Weapons

Name	Cost	Damage	Range	Notes	Description
Combat Knife	15	Str+d4	Melee		Simple metal blade. Cheap, reliable, and always useful. Standard issue for soldiers; essential backup when blasters fail.

Name	Cost	Damage	Range	Notes	Description
Hold-Out Blaster	75	2d4	5/10/20	Concealable	Small, easily hidden blaster for backup or covert carry. Lower damage and range, but can pass security checks when properly concealed.
Grenade	100	3d6	5/10/20	AP 2, Medium Blast Template, one use	Standard fragmentation grenade. Thrown explosive with a short fuse; strong anti-personnel effect in a small area.
Blaster Pistol	150	2d6	12/24/48	Semi-auto	Standard civilian blaster pistol. Reliable and widely available across the galaxy. Favored by smugglers and merchants for self-defense.
Stun Baton	200	Str+d4	Melee	Stun setting, Nonlethal focus	Security-grade impact baton with a shock emitter. Designed for riot control and law enforcement engagements.
Blaster Rifle (Standard)	300	2d8	15/30/60	AP 1	Standard military blaster rifle. Good balance of power and accuracy. Used by militias, pirates, and resistance forces across the galaxy.
Ion Pistol	300	2d6	10/20/40	Ionic, +2 damage vs droids/vehicles, Stun setting	Specialized sidearm that fires ionized bolts. Less effective against living targets, but excellent for disabling droids, sensors, and light vehicle systems.
Shock Gloves	300	Str+d4	Melee	Stun 3, Concealable	Electrified combat gloves for close-quarters

					takedowns. Favored by enforcers and bounty hunters who need prisoners alive.
E-11 Stormtrooper Rifle	350	2d8	24/48/96	AP 1, 3RB	Imperial standard-issue blaster rifle. Compact, reliable, with folding stock. Can fire three-round bursts. Common on the black market.
Vibro-ax	350	Str+d8	Melee	AP 2, Parry -1	Heavy vibro-weapon; powerful strikes but harder to parry with. Common among Wookiees and other strong species.
A280 Blaster Rifle	400	2d8+1	24/48/96	AP 2	Alliance favorite; powerful and accurate. Superior to E-11 in most respects. Favored by Rebel infantry and veterans.
BlasTech DL-44	450	2d6+2	5/10/20	Heavy, AP 1	Heavy blaster pistol famously used by Han Solo. Powerful punch in a compact package. Highly sought after; expensive and often restricted.
Blaster Carbine	450	2d8	18/36/72	AP 1, Stun setting	Compact long arm balancing mobility and stopping power. Popular with scouts, pilots, and boarding teams.
Blaster Rifle (Heavy)	500	2d8+1	24/48/96	AP 2, 3RB	Heavy assault rifle with three-round burst. Devastating against armored targets. Requires strength to wield effectively; used by heavy weapons specialists.

Force Pike	500	Str+d6	Melee	AP 2, Reach 1, Stun setting	Polearm favored by ceremonial guards and security forces. Combines armor-penetrating thrusts with controlled stun discharge.
Thermal Detonator	500	3d8	4/8/16	AP 4, Medium Blast Template, one use, restricted	High-yield military explosive charge. Compact, volatile, and heavily regulated due to severe blast and fragmentation effects.
Vibroblade	500	Str+d6	Melee	AP 2	Vibrating blade that cuts through armor. Silent and deadly for close-quarters combat. Popular among assassins and those who prefer stealth.
Electrostaff	600	Str+d6	Melee	AP 1, Reach 1	Electrified pole weapon used by MagnaGuards. Can block lightsabers. Extended reach; requires training to use effectively.
Ion Rifle	700	2d8	20/40/80	Ionic, +2 damage vs droids/vehicles	Long-arm ion weapon built to disable droids and light vehicles. Excellent support weapon against mechanized threats.
Vibrosword	750	Str+d8	Melee	AP 2, Parry +1	Powered vibroblade with dueling balance and armor-cutting edge. A premium melee weapon for nobles, mercenaries, and elite enforcers.

Name	Cost	Damage	Range	Notes	Description
Light Repeating Blaster	1800	2d10	24/48/96	AP 1, Auto-fire, Bulky	Portable support blaster designed for sustained fire. Devastating in suppression roles, but heavy and difficult to conceal.
Heavy Repeating Blaster	3000	3d8	30/60/120	AP 2, Auto-fire, Very Bulky, Crew-served	Tripod- or harness-mounted heavy weapon for battlefield dominance. Used by entrenched defenders and heavy assault teams.
Lightsaber	15000	Str+d10	Melee	AP 4, Ignores 4 armor	Elegant weapon of a more civilized age. Plasma blade that cuts through nearly anything. Requires kyber crystal and Force attunement; extremely rare and illegal in Imperial space.

Step 6 — Armor

Name	Cost	Toughness	Notes	Description
No Armor	0	0		No protective gear. Maximum mobility, zero protection. Risky but common for those relying on speed or avoiding notice.
Padded Clothing	25	+1		Light padding beneath clothes. Minimal protection, easily concealed. Common for diplomats and those who need to look unarmed.
Leather/Jacket	50	+1		Thick leather or reinforced jacket. Slight protection with everyday appearance. Popular with pilots and smugglers.

Name	Cost	Toughness	Notes	Description
Combat Armor (Light)	200	+2		Light tactical armor. Good protection without limiting mobility. Standard for mercenaries and security personnel.
Stormtrooper Armor	400	+3	-1 Stealth	Imperial stormtrooper armor. White plastoid plate offers solid protection. Imposes Stealth penalty; highly recognizable and illegal for civilians.
Heavy Battle Armor	600	+4	-2 Stealth, -1 Agility	Full military armor. Excellent protection but heavy and restrictive. Used by assault troops and heavy weapons specialists.
Mandalorian Armor	3000	+4	AP 2 vs conventional	Beskar or similar alloys. Legendary armor worn by Mandalorian warriors. Resists conventional weapons; extremely rare and valuable.

Step 6 — General gear

Name	Cost	Notes	Description
Energy Cell (Spare)	5	Power pack for blasters	Replacement power pack for blaster weapons. Lightweight; experienced fighters always carry spares.
Glow Rod	10	Illumination	Portable light source. Illuminates dark corridors, caves, and ship interiors. Standard equipment for exploration.
Binders	25	Restrain prisoners	Magnetic or mechanical restraints for prisoners. Standard for bounty hunters, law enforcement, and slavers.
